UDC ladies meet

By Mrs. Margaret Lee

On Thursday, Feb. 18, at noon the Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at Maude's Restaurant for a luncheon meeting. Neither did the cold, sleet and icy conditions keep the 17 members and guests from attending.

Mrs. Rachel Lawson introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Cris Caukins, historian at the National Park, Petersburg, Va.

Mr. Caukins spoke to the members and guests on the "Battle of Saylor's Creek."

Saylor's Creek is located in Prince Edward County, where three distinct battles were fought, was where 7,700 soldiers surrendered and also was the last major battle fought before General Robert E. Lee surrendered to Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox, Va. on April 9, 1865.

Mrs. Hazel Lee Martin returned thanks for the meal.

After the luncheon a brief business meeting was held with Mrs. Lucille Ferrell, president, presiding.

Mrs. Louise Plunkett led the group in the pledge of allegiance to the United States Flag, and salutes to the Flag of Virginia and to the Confederate Flag.

Mrs. Lucille Ferrell read the ritual and the Confederate prayer.

Mrs. Louise Plunkett read the letter she received from Mrs. Arlington R. Snell, Virginia Division Registra, as follows, "Your good work helped the Virginia Division to win six registra prizes in Winston Salem, North Carolina in 1981."

The fees for 1981 through November 1983 new applicant $8.99; children of Confederacy transfer $5.50 United Daughters of Confederacy transfer $1.50; supplement $2.00.

Mrs. Margaret Lee was appointed Secretary of the Appomattox Chapter of the U.D.C. upon the resignation of Mrs. Elaine Moore.

The meeting was concluded when Mrs. Harriett Cunningham led the group in joining hands and singing "Blest Be The Tie."

Bloodmobile gets 138 units here

The February visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile collected a total of 138 units of blood on Monday, February 22 at Liberty Baptist Church,

"We are so pleased to have gone over our quota of 100 units," commented Mrs. Alice Martin, Chairman of the Appomattox County Red Cross Blood Services. "The 38 units over the quota makes up for the lack we experienced at another visit. This will really make a difference," she concluded.

Among Monday's donors was Mr. William (Bill) Hunter of the Farmers National Bank who received his 9 Gallon Pin at this visit.
